

Improv House Team Coach

Contractor, Non Exempt, Flexible Rate

Stomping Ground Comedy House Team Coaches should be passionate about teaching, knowledgeable about their subject matter, excellent communicators, and able to create a positive learning environment and experience for all students. This position reports to the House Team Coordinator. Improv House Team Coaches are responsible for leading rehearsals and Stomping Ground house teams in accordance with the Stomping Ground mission.

Flexible schedule: This position requires 5-7 hrs per month

Qualifications:

- Minimum one years experience in improvisation, comedy, and/or theatre preferred
- Prior teaching or coaching experience preferred
- Completion of Stomping Ground's improv curriculum or completion of a comparable improv curriculum at another theater (e.g. UCB, iO, Magnet) required
- Proven ability to lead a group of adults, while maintaining a safe and welcoming learning environment for all involved
- Ability to deliver positive & constructive feedback to students in a supportive way
- Effective written and oral communication skills
- Professional and friendly demeanor
- Some experience with Excel or Google Sheets preferred

Responsibilities:

- Creating a welcoming, safe, and creative educational climate which creates a positive team dynamic
- Delivering clear, concise, effective instructional activities and objectives in accordance with Stomping Ground Comedy's pedagogy and policies
- Leading rehearsals at minimum twice per month when coaching a House Team
- Attending all House Team shows and providing feedback (or finding an approve substitute when not available)
- Managing performer behavior during rehearsal and shows in accordance with Stomping Ground Comedy's policies.
- Recording and monitoring the attendance of team members in a timely manner.
- Communicating with performers through effective & clear written communication.
- Participating in staff, group or other meetings as needed.
- Support the mission and learning objectives of Stomping Ground Comedy & Training Center.
- Serve as a Brand Ambassador for Stomping Ground, promoting and representing the brand at all times.

Compensation:

Coach will set rehearsal/performer rate

Apply at stompinggroundcomedy.org/join-our-team.